

Journal of Arctic Security, Volume 4 Call for Papers

The Ted Stevens Center for Arctic Security Studies announces an article submission deadline of 31 May 2025 for contributions to JAS Vol. 4 for release in fall 2025.

Through the release of national defense and security strategies, the U.S. and its Allies and partners have demonstrated a commitment to supporting and strengthening Arctic governance—the actors, institutions, frameworks, legal principles and norms that comprise the current rules-based order. Researchers are invited to submit papers on topics related to Arctic governance, including but not limited to:

- Evaluation of the challenges to the rules-based order in the Arctic and implications for national defense and security
- The future of the Arctic Council in light of tensions related to the war in Ukraine
- Assessments of existing frameworks, management, regulation, and enforcement
- New or improved Arctic governance framework opportunities for the U.S. and its Allies
- Implications of Russia's threatened exit from UNCLOS
- Evaluation of U.S. position on UNCLOS as customary law
- Ramifications of the U.S. Extended Continental Shelf announcement
- Governance as it relates to economic and infrastructure development
- And, research furthering academic discourse on topics from Volumes 1-3.

Scan the QR code to see the latest Journal and
the JAS Writer's Guide

Submissions of 4,000 – 6,500 words in APA Style with author's curriculum vitae will be accepted by the editorial staff at TSC-JACSS@groups.af.mil.

JAS is a peer-reviewed academic publication. Articles are unclassified, and readers can access articles from all over the world. Submissions will be accepted in English language, clearly written for an informed audience of defense and security affairs professionals and academics.